Extension Activities 2021-22

Date: 08-05-2022

Name of the Activity: Tree plantation programme conducted by NSS Volunteers along with forest ranger officer and Red Cross Society Official

Name of Department: NSS , BOTANY, ZOOLOGY

No of students involved:48

Tree Plantation Program Conducted by NSS Volunteers at GDC Paderu with Forest Range Officer and Staff and RED CROSS SOCIETY Officials.

Extension Activity Report: Tree Plantation Programme

Introduction: On May 8th, 2022, Government Degree College, Paderu, organized a tree plantation programme as part of its extension activities to promote environmental sustainability and awareness among students and the local community. This initiative was conducted in collaboration with the Forest Department and the Red Cross Society.

Objectives:

- To enhance the green cover in the local area.
- To educate and involve students in environmental conservation activities.
- To foster a sense of responsibility towards nature among the youth.

Participants: The event saw active participation from 48 students from the NSS, Botany, and Zoology departments. Additionally, a Forest Ranger Officer and an official from the Red Cross Society were present to guide and support the activity.

Activities Conducted:

1. Inauguration and Briefing: The programme began with an inauguration ceremony where the Forest Ranger Officer and the Red Cross Society Official briefed the participants on the importance of tree plantation and the correct methods of planting and nurturing saplings.
2. Tree Plantation: Students, along with the officials, planted a variety of saplings in designated areas around the college campus and nearby locations. The saplings included both indigenous and fruit-bearing trees to ensure ecological balance and provide future benefits to the community.
3. Educational Session: After the plantation activity, an educational session was conducted by the Botany and Zoology departments. This session focused on the ecological significance of trees, the process of photosynthesis, and the role of trees in maintaining biodiversity and combating climate change.
4. Follow-up Plan: A follow-up plan was established to ensure the growth and survival of the planted saplings. NSS volunteers were assigned the responsibility of regularly watering and monitoring the saplings. The Forest Department also committed to providing technical support and additional resources as needed.

Outcomes:

- Environmental Impact: The plantation of new trees contributed to increasing the green cover in the region, which will help in improving air quality and providing habitat for local wildlife.
- Educational Impact: Students gained hands-on experience and practical knowledge about tree plantation and environmental conservation.
- Community Engagement: The collaboration with the Forest Department and Red Cross Society fostered a sense of community responsibility and highlighted the importance of collective efforts in environmental sustainability.

Conclusion: The tree plantation programme was a significant step towards promoting environmental awareness and action among students and the local community. The active involvement of various departments and external organizations ensured the success of the event and set a precedent for future environmental activities. The college remains committed to continuing such initiatives to contribute to a greener and healthier environment.

Extension Activities 2022-23

Date: 05-12-22

Name of the Activity: Awareness on sickle cell anemia APTWR G SCHOOL SRIKRISHNA PURAM

Name of Department :ZOOLOGY , RRC, NSS , Indian Red Cross Society paderu

No of students involved:300 students

On December 5, 2022, an awareness program on sickle cell anemia was conducted at APTWR G School in Srikrishna Puram. The event saw the participation of 300 students and was organized collaboratively by the Zoology, RRC (Red Ribbon Club), NSS (National Service Scheme) departments, and the Indian Red Cross Society Paderu.

Key Highlights of the Program:

- 1. Introduction and Keynote Address: The program commenced with an introductory session led by the school principal, highlighting the importance of awareness about genetic disorders. This was followed by a keynote address from representatives of the Indian Red Cross Society, who stressed the significance of understanding sickle cell anemia and its impact on individuals and communities.

2. Educational Presentation: Doctors and staff from the Indian Red Cross Society provided a comprehensive presentation on sickle cell anemia. They explained the genetic basis of the disease, how it affects red blood cells, and the resulting health complications. Visual aids and detailed explanations helped simplify complex medical information for the students.
3. Interactive Q&A Session: An interactive Q&A session allowed students to ask questions and seek clarification on various aspects of sickle cell anemia. The doctors and staff addressed their queries, providing in-depth answers and additional information to ensure thorough understanding.
4. Prevention and Management Strategies: The presentation included crucial information on the prevention and management of sickle cell anemia. The doctors discussed the importance of regular medical check-ups, the role of a balanced diet, and the necessity of avoiding triggers that can cause sickle cell crises.
5. Awareness Materials: Informational brochures and pamphlets about sickle cell anemia were distributed to all participants. These materials contained summarized information on the disease, its symptoms, and management strategies, serving as valuable take-home resources for the students and their families.
6. Community Outreach and Impact: Students were encouraged to share the knowledge they gained with their families and communities, thereby amplifying the impact of the program. They were also briefed on how to conduct similar awareness activities in their local areas to further spread the message.

The event was highly successful in raising awareness about sickle cell anemia among the students. It equipped them with essential knowledge and preventive strategies, fostering a deeper understanding of the disease. The collaborative effort of the Zoology, RRC, NSS departments, and the Indian Red Cross Society was crucial in the effective organization and execution of the program.

Extension Activities 2022-23

Date: 08-12-22

Name of the Activity: National Action Plan for Drug Demand Reduction

Name of Department: NSS and RRC

No of students involved: 134

On December 8, 2022, a total of 134 students from the NSS (National Service Scheme) and RRC (Red Ribbon Club) departments participated in the National Action Plan for Drug Demand Reduction (NAPDDR) program. The event was aimed at spreading awareness about drug abuse prevention and promoting a drug-free lifestyle among the youth.

Key activities during the event included:

1. Awareness Workshops and Seminars: Experts conducted sessions to educate students on the dangers of drug abuse, preventive measures, and the importance of maintaining a healthy lifestyle. These sessions included interactive discussions and Q&A segments, allowing students to engage deeply with the subject matter.
2. Cultural Programs: Students participated in and performed various cultural activities such as skits, dances, and songs, all centered around the theme of drug prevention. These performances aimed to convey powerful messages about the consequences of drug abuse and the benefits of staying drug-free.

3. Community Outreach: As part of the program, students conducted outreach activities within the community, distributing informational pamphlets and engaging in conversations with community members to raise awareness about drug abuse and its prevention.

The NAPDDR event was a significant step towards empowering students with the knowledge and tools to combat drug abuse. It also provided a platform for them to act as change agents within their communities, promoting the message of a drug-free lifestyle.

The event was successful in achieving its objectives, with enthusiastic participation from the students and a positive response from the community. The collaboration between the NSS and RRC departments was instrumental in the effective planning and execution of the program.

Name of the Activity: World environment day rally at paderu town collaboration with forest department

Name of Department : Botany , chemistry , zoology , NSS

No of students involved:134

On the 5th of June, 2023, the Departments of Botany, Chemistry, Zoology, and the National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a rally to celebrate World Environment Day in Paderu Town. The event was held in collaboration with the Forest Department and aimed at raising awareness about environmental conservation and sustainable living practices among the local community.

Details of the Activity:

1. Preparation:

- The event planning began weeks in advance, involving coordination meetings between the participating departments and the Forest Department.
- An orientation session was held for the 134 student volunteers to brief them about the rally's objectives, the importance of World Environment Day, and their roles during the event.

2. Execution:

- The rally commenced at 9:00 AM from the central ground of Paderu Town.
- Participants included students, faculty members, NSS volunteers, and officials from the Forest Department, including the Divisional Forest Officer (DFO) of Paderu.
- The rally featured banners, placards, and slogans emphasizing the importance of environmental conservation, reducing pollution, and promoting green practices.
- The route covered major streets of Paderu Town, ensuring maximum visibility and engagement with the local residents.

3. Speeches and Awareness Campaign:

- The rally concluded at the town hall, where key figures including the DFO Paderu, NSS Program Officer Gowri Sankar, and Ch. Anita, Lecturer in Chemistry, addressed the participants and the gathered audience.
- The speeches highlighted the significance of World Environment Day, the urgent need for environmental action, and practical steps individuals can take to contribute to a healthier planet.
- Educational pamphlets about sustainable practices and the importance of preserving biodiversity were distributed to the public.

4. Impact:

- The rally successfully raised awareness among the residents of Paderu Town about critical environmental issues and the collective actions required to address them.
- The involvement of students from diverse academic backgrounds underscored the interdisciplinary nature of environmental conservation efforts.
- Participants reported a heightened sense of responsibility and commitment towards environmental stewardship following the event.

Conclusion:

The World Environment Day Rally in Paderu Town was a resounding success, thanks to the collaborative efforts of the Departments of Botany, Chemistry, Zoology, NSS, and the Forest Department. The participation of 134 enthusiastic students played a crucial role in spreading the message of environmental conservation. This event not only educated the local community but also inspired future initiatives aimed at promoting a sustainable and green environment.

Extension Activities – 2021-22

Date: 10-10-2021

Name of the Activity: Awareness on SUPERSTITIOUS BELIEFS, food and nutrition and Health and hygiene

Name of Department : NSS , ZOOLOGY, Botany and UNICEF

No of students involved: 74 students NSS PO Gowri sankar and P Ramesh Kumar lecturer in zoology

On October 10th, 2021, Government Degree College, Paderu, in collaboration with NSS, Zoology, Botany departments, and UNICEF, organized an awareness program addressing Superstitious Beliefs, Food and Nutrition, and Health and Hygiene. The event aimed to educate students and the community about these crucial topics for holistic well-being.

Activities:

1. Awareness Sessions: Various sessions were conducted to debunk superstitious beliefs prevalent in society. These sessions emphasized evidence-based knowledge and critical thinking to dispel myths and promote rational thinking.
2. Food and Nutrition Education: Experts discussed the importance of balanced nutrition, healthy eating habits, and the impact of dietary choices on overall health. Practical tips for maintaining a nutritious diet were shared to encourage healthier lifestyles among participants.

3. Health and Hygiene Practices: The event also focused on promoting good hygiene practices such as handwashing, sanitation, and preventive healthcare measures. Demonstrations and interactive sessions helped participants understand the significance of hygiene in disease prevention.
4. Role of UNICEF: UNICEF's involvement contributed valuable insights and resources to enhance the educational impact of the program, emphasizing global health standards and sustainable development goals related to nutrition and hygiene.

Outcome:

The awareness program successfully educated students and community members about the detrimental effects of superstitious beliefs and the importance of adopting healthy food habits and hygiene practices. It empowered participants with knowledge to make informed decisions for their well-being and that of their families.

Conclusion:

The collaborative effort between NSS, Zoology, Botany departments, and UNICEF demonstrated the college's commitment to promoting education beyond academics. By addressing critical societal issues, the event underscored the role of education in fostering a healthier and more rational society.

Extension Activities 2021-22

Date: 16 -09-21

Name of the Activity: Awareness on child marriages

Name of Department: Telugu , English and NSS

No of students involved:53

On September 16, 2021, Government Degree College, Paderu, organized an awareness programme on child marriages. This event aimed to educate students on the legal, social, and health implications of child marriages and to promote awareness on the importance of eradicating this practice.

Key Participant:

- Dr. T N Rasool Garu - Keynote Speaker

Objectives:

- To raise awareness about the negative impacts of child marriages.
- To educate students on the legal age for marriage and the laws prohibiting child marriages.
- To empower students with knowledge to advocate against child marriages in their communities.

Activities Conducted:

1. Inauguration:

- The event began with a welcome address and an introduction to the topic of child marriages. The organizers highlighted the importance of the programme and the role of students in combating this issue.

2. Keynote Speech by Dr. T N Rasool Garu:

- Dr. T N Rasool Garu delivered an insightful and compelling speech on the dangers and consequences of child marriages. He discussed the legal framework surrounding child marriages in India, including the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006.
- The speaker highlighted the adverse effects of child marriages on health, education, and socio-economic status, emphasizing how early marriages disrupt the lives and futures of young girls.

- Dr. Rasool also shared real-life stories and statistics to underscore the urgency of addressing this issue.

3. Interactive Session:

- Students participated actively in an interactive session where they posed questions and shared their views on child marriages. The session provided a platform for open discussion and clarification of doubts regarding the topic.

4. Pledge Against Child Marriages:

- At the end of the programme, all participants took a pledge to advocate against child marriages and to spread awareness within their communities. This symbolic act reinforced their commitment to fighting this social evil.

Key Takeaways:

- Increased Awareness: Students gained a comprehensive understanding of the negative impacts of child marriages and the legal measures in place to prevent them.
- Empowerment: The programme empowered students with knowledge and the motivation to take a stand against child marriages.
- Community Engagement: Students were encouraged to act as ambassadors of change, spreading the message within their communities to help eradicate child marriages.

Feedback: Participants found the programme enlightening and expressed their determination to contribute to the fight against child marriages. They appreciated the detailed and engaging presentation by Dr. T N Rasool Garu and valued the opportunity to discuss this critical issue openly.

Conclusion: The awareness programme on child marriages organized by Government Degree College, Paderu, was highly effective in educating and empowering students. It successfully highlighted the urgent need to end child marriages and motivated students to take proactive steps towards this goal.

Extension Activities - 2021-22

Date: 16-07-21

Name of the Activity: Awareness on Seasonal diseases APTWR SCHOOL for Boys Paderu

Name of Department : zoology ,NSS,RRC

No of students involved:50

On July 16, 2021, 50 students from the Zoology, NSS (National Service Scheme), and RRC (Red Ribbon Club) departments participated in an awareness program on seasonal diseases at APTWR School for Boys in Paderu. The event focused on educating students about common seasonal diseases such as malaria, dengue, typhoid, and diarrhoea, and the preventive measures to combat them.

Key Highlights of the Program:

1. Keynote Address: The session was inaugurated by the keynote speaker, Sri Gowri Sankar, NSS Program Officer. He provided an overview of the importance of awareness and prevention of seasonal diseases. His talk emphasized the impact of these diseases on health and the community.
2. Educational Presentation: Faculty members from the Zoology department presented detailed information on the causes, symptoms, and preventive measures for malaria, dengue, typhoid, and diarrhea. They explained how these diseases are transmitted, the importance of hygiene, and the steps that can be taken to prevent outbreaks.

3. Interactive Q&A Session: An interactive question-and-answer session followed the presentations, where students had the opportunity to ask questions and clear their doubts regarding the diseases. This session was crucial for reinforcing the knowledge shared during the presentation.
4. Preventive Measures Demonstration: Practical demonstrations on how to use mosquito nets, the importance of clean drinking water, and proper sanitation practices were conducted. This hands-on approach helped students understand the practical aspects of disease prevention.
5. Awareness Materials: Informational pamphlets and brochures about malaria, dengue, typhoid, and diarrhea were distributed to the students. These materials summarized the key points discussed during the program and served as a reference for further learning.
6. Community Outreach: Students were encouraged to share the knowledge they gained with their families and communities, thereby extending the impact of the awareness program beyond the school. They were also briefed on how to organize similar awareness campaigns in their localities.

The event successfully raised awareness about seasonal diseases among the students, equipping them with the knowledge to recognize symptoms and understand the importance of preventive measures. The collaboration between the Zoology, NSS, and RRC departments was instrumental in the effective planning and execution of the program.

Extension Activities- 2021-22

Date:06-08-2021

Name of the Activity: Covid vaccination survey at lochala putti paderumandalam

Name of Department :zoology ,NSS, RRC

No of students involved:50

On the 6th of August, 2021, a Covid vaccination survey was conducted in Lochala Putti, PaderuMandalam by the Department of Zoology in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS) and Red Ribbon Club (RRC). The purpose of the survey was to gather data on the vaccination status of the local population, identify challenges in vaccine uptake, and promote awareness about the importance of vaccination against Covid-19.

Execution:

- The students, divided into small teams, visited various households in Lochala Putti. They were guided by P. Ramesh Kumar and Gowri Sankar Garu to ensure the process was systematic and efficient.
- Each team carried out the survey by interacting with residents, asking a set of pre-prepared questions regarding their vaccination status, reasons for any hesitancy, and gathering demographic information.
- Information was also provided to the residents about the benefits of getting vaccinated, addressing common myths and misconceptions about the Covid-19 vaccines.

Conclusion:

- The Covid vaccination survey conducted at Lochala Putti, PaderuMandalam, was a significant step towards understanding and improving vaccine coverage in the area. The combined efforts of the Department of Zoology, NSS, and RRC, along with the dedication of the student volunteers, contributed to the success of this initiative. Continued efforts and follow-up activities are recommended to ensure higher vaccination rates and better health outcomes for the community.

Extension Activities 2019-20

Date: 15-06-2019

Activity: Awareness on the Importance of Higher Education in Paderu Rural Villages

Venue: Paderu Rural Villages

Departments Involved: NSS, Political Science, Commerce

Participants: K. Appala Naidu (Lecturer in Political Science), Achuta Rao (Lecturer in Commerce)

On June 15, 2019, the National Service Scheme (NSS), along with the Departments of Political Science and Commerce, conducted an awareness program in the rural villages of Paderu to highlight the significance of higher education. The initiative aimed to inform and inspire students and their families about the benefits and opportunities provided by pursuing higher education.

Lecturers K. Appala Naidu and Achuta Rao led the program, engaging with the villagers through interactive sessions and informative talks. They discussed various aspects of higher education, including its role in personal and professional development, economic advancement, and social mobility. The program also addressed common barriers to higher education and provided information on available scholarships and financial aid.

The outreach successfully reached a wide audience, encouraging many students and parents to consider higher education as a viable and beneficial path. By emphasizing the long-term advantages and dispelling myths, the program made a significant impact on the community's perception of education.

Overall, the awareness program effectively promoted the importance of higher education, fostering a positive attitude towards learning and future academic pursuits in the rural villages of Paderu.

Extension Activities 2019-20

Date: 14 -06-2020

Name of the Activity: Awareness of wearing mask and distribution masks at sundRuputtu, gonduru

Name of Department : Zoology, NSS, RRC

No of students involved: 57

The Government Degree College in Paderu, in collaboration with the Zoology Department, NSS, and RRC, conducted an extension activity on June 14, 2020. The primary focus of this activity was to raise awareness about the importance of wearing masks to prevent the spread of COVID-19 and to distribute masks to the residents of Sunduputtu and Gonduru.

Objectives

1. To educate the community about the benefits and importance of wearing masks.
2. To demonstrate the correct way to wear and handle masks.
3. To distribute masks to the local population to ensure they have access to necessary protective equipment.

Participants

A total of 57 students from the Zoology Department, NSS, and RRC actively participated in this activity.

Activities Conducted

1. Awareness Campaign

The students organized an awareness campaign in Sunduputtu and Gonduru. The campaign included:

- Public Announcements: Using megaphones and public address systems, students conveyed messages about the importance of wearing masks, maintaining social distancing, and following hygiene practices.
- Pamphlet Distribution: Informative pamphlets, detailing the steps to prevent COVID-19 infection, were distributed among the villagers.

2. Demonstration Sessions

- Proper Use of Masks: Students conducted live demonstrations showing the correct way to wear masks, emphasizing covering both the nose and mouth, and avoiding touching the mask while wearing it.
- Hand Hygiene: Demonstrations on effective hand washing techniques and the use of hand sanitizers were also provided.

3. Mask Distribution

- Free Distribution: Masks were distributed free of cost to the residents of Sunduputtu and Gonduru. Special attention was given to ensure that every household received an adequate number of masks.
- Awareness of Reusability: Information was provided on how to clean and reuse masks safely, where applicable.

Impact

The activity had a significant positive impact on the local communities:

- Increased awareness about COVID-19 prevention measures.
- Enhanced understanding of the importance of wearing masks.
- Improved access to protective masks for the local population.

Feedback

The community members appreciated the efforts of the students and expressed their gratitude. Many villagers acknowledged that they had a better understanding of how to protect themselves and their families from COVID-19.

Conclusion

The awareness and mask distribution activity carried out by the Government Degree College, Paderu, was successful in educating and equipping the local population of Sunduputtu and Gonduru with the necessary tools to combat the spread of COVID-19. This initiative highlighted the crucial role of educational institutions in community service and public health promotion.

Extension Activities 2020-21

Date: 04-05-2021

Name of the Activity: Corona Vaccination Awareness program and vaccination drive at sundruputtu lochulaputtu paderu mandal

Name of Department: NSS, ZOOLOGY, RRC

No of students involved: 78

Overview

On May 4, 2021, the NSS, Zoology, and RRC departments organized a Corona Vaccination Awareness Program and Vaccination Drive at Sundruputtu LochulaPuttu in Paderu Mandal. This initiative was aimed at increasing awareness about the COVID-19 vaccination, addressing vaccine hesitancy, and facilitating the vaccination process for the local community.

Objectives

1. Raise Awareness: Educate the local population about the importance of getting vaccinated against COVID-19.
2. Address Concerns: Provide accurate information to dispel myths and fears related to the vaccine.
3. Facilitate Vaccination: Assist in the organization and administration of vaccines to ensure a smooth and efficient process.

Activities Conducted

1. Awareness Sessions:

- Conducted educational sessions using pamphlets, posters, and verbal communication to inform the community about the benefits and safety of the COVID-19 vaccines.
- Addressed common myths and misconceptions about the vaccine.

2. Interactive Discussions:

- Organized Q&A sessions where community members could ask questions and express their concerns about the vaccine.
- Provided answers and information backed by scientific data and health guidelines.

3. Vaccination Drive:

- Set up vaccination booths in collaboration with local health authorities.
- Ensured proper registration and documentation for those getting vaccinated.
- Managed the flow of individuals to maintain social distancing and other safety protocols.

Student Involvement

A total of 78 students from the NSS, Zoology, and RRC departments actively participated in the program. Their roles included:

- Awareness Campaign: Designing and distributing informative materials, conducting educational talks, and engaging with the community.

- Logistics and Management: Assisting in setting up the vaccination site, managing the crowd, and ensuring that the process was orderly and efficient.

- Support and Assistance: Helping with the registration process, providing post-vaccination care, and monitoring for any immediate side effects.

Outcome

The program successfully vaccinated a significant number of residents and raised awareness about the importance of vaccination in combating the COVID-19 pandemic. The community's response was positive, with many expressing gratitude for the initiative and the clear information provided.

Conclusion

The Corona Vaccination Awareness Program and Vaccination Drive at SundruputtuLochulaPuttu were effective in both educating the community and facilitating the vaccination process. ## Extension Activities 2020-21

Date:21-04-2021

Name of the Activity: Clean and Green programme and plantation at Sri Moda Konda Ammavari temple paderu

Name of Department :NSS , Botany , History and zoology

No of students involved:124 students and staff and K. Bagyalakshmi MLA paderu and T. Narashimha rao medical board member

Introduction

On April 21st, 2021, Government Degree College, Paderu, organized a Clean and Green Programme in collaboration with various departments and special guests, including Smt. K. Bagyalakshmi, MLA, Paderu, and T. Narasimha Rao Medical Board Member. The event was conducted at Sri Moda Konda Ammavari Temple, Paderu, with the aim of promoting cleanliness and environmental conservation.

Objectives:

- To clean and beautify the surroundings of Sri Moda Konda Ammavari Temple.
- To plant trees for enhancing green cover and promoting environmental awareness.

- To engage students and staff in community service and civic responsibility.

Participants and Activities:

1. Cleaning Drive: The programme commenced with a cleaning drive around Sri Moda

Konda Ammavari Temple. Students and staff actively participated in clearing litter and debris, ensuring the area was pristine and welcoming for visitors.

2. Plantation Activity: Following the cleaning drive, a plantation session was conducted with the guidance and participation of Smt. K. Bagyalakshmi, MLA, Paderu. Various tree saplings were planted around the temple premises to contribute to the greenery and ecological balance of the area.

3. Educational and Awareness Sessions: Concurrently, educational sessions were organized by the Botany, History, and Zoology departments. These sessions covered topics such as the importance of trees in the ecosystem, historical significance of the temple, and civic duties in maintaining cleanliness and hygiene.

4. Speeches and Recognition: Smt. K. Bagyalakshmi and T. Narasimha Rao addressed the participants, highlighting the significance of environmental conservation and community participation. They commended the efforts of the college in organizing such initiatives and encouraged continued engagement in similar activities.

Outcomes:

- Environmental Impact: The plantation of trees contributed to increasing the green cover in the temple vicinity, which will enhance air quality and provide shade and habitat for wildlife.
- Community Engagement: The event fostered a sense of civic responsibility among students and staff, promoting active involvement in community service.
- Educational Benefits: Participants gained practical knowledge about environmental conservation and cultural heritage, aligning with the college's commitment to holistic education.

Conclusion: The Clean and Green Programme at Sri Moda Konda Ammavari Temple was a successful initiative that underscored the importance of environmental stewardship and community involvement. The collaboration with esteemed guests and the active participation of students and staff ensured a meaningful impact on both the local environment and the participants' personal development.

Extension Activities 2018-2019

Date: 06-12-2018

Name of the Activity: Clean and Green at Koraka Puttu Village

Department Involved: NSS (National Service Scheme)

Number of Students Involved: 100

Activity Overview:

On the 6th of December, 2018, students from the National Service Scheme (NSS) of Government Degree College (GDC) Paderu organized a "Clean and Green" campaign in the village of Koraka Puttu. The aim of this initiative was to enhance the cleanliness and environmental health of the village, with a special focus on the areas surrounding the bore well, which is the main source of drinking water for the villagers.

Key Activities:

1. Village Streets Clean-up:

- A team of 100 NSS students took part in cleaning the streets of Koraka Puttu.
- The activity involved removing litter, sweeping, and properly disposing of waste materials.
- Efforts were made to educate the villagers on proper waste disposal practices to maintain long-term cleanliness.

2. Bore Well Area Cleaning:

- Special attention was given to cleaning the bore well area.
- Students ensured the area was free from contaminants and waste to protect the quality of the drinking water.
- The surroundings were cleared of debris, and steps were taken to prevent future contamination.

Impact:

ificantly improved the cleanliness of Koraka Puttu, especially around the bore well, ensuring safer drinking water for the villagers.

- The involvement of 100 students helped to foster a sense of community and collective responsibility for maintaining a clean and healthy environment.
- The green initiative of planting trees contributed to the long-term ecological health of the village.

Conclusion:

The Clean and Green activity at Koraka Puttu was a successful endeavor by the NSS unit of GDC Paderu. The concerted efforts of the students in cleaning the village and the bore well area played a vital role in promoting environmental hygiene and sustainability. The campaign

Extension Activities 2018-19

Date: 08-12-2018

Name of the Activity: Survey on Health and Hygiene and Seasonal Diseases

Departments Involved: NSS, Zoology, Chemistry

Number of Students Involved: 80

Activity Overview:

On the 8th of December, 2018, students from the National Service Scheme (NSS) and the departments of Zoology and Chemistry from Government Degree College (GDC) Paderu conducted a survey in the village of Koraka Puttu. The objective of this survey was to assess the health and hygiene practices of the villagers and to identify common seasonal diseases affecting the community.

Key Activities:

1. Health and Hygiene Assessment:

- Students conducted door-to-door surveys to gather information on the health and hygiene practices of the villagers.
- The survey included questions about personal hygiene, sanitation facilities, waste disposal methods, and access to clean drinking water.

2. Identification of Seasonal Diseases:

- The survey aimed to identify common seasonal diseases prevalent in the village.
- Students collected data on the incidence of diseases such as malaria, dengue, and respiratory infections, which are common during certain seasons.

3. Health Awareness Campaign:

- Based on preliminary survey results, students organized awareness sessions on maintaining good health and hygiene practices.
- Information was provided on the prevention of common seasonal diseases, proper sanitation, and the importance of clean drinking water.

Findings:

• Health and Hygiene Practices:

- The survey revealed varying levels of awareness and practice of hygiene among the villagers.
- Some households had good sanitation facilities, while others lacked access to proper toilets and waste disposal systems.

• Seasonal Diseases:

- The data indicated a higher incidence of malaria and respiratory infections during the rainy season.
- Lack of proper sanitation and stagnant water were identified as major contributing factors to the spread of these diseases.

Impact:

- The survey provided valuable insights into the health and hygiene status of Koraka Puttu, highlighting areas that need improvement.
- The awareness campaign helped educate the villagers on important health practices, potentially reducing the incidence of seasonal diseases.
- The involvement of 80 students ensured a thorough and comprehensive survey, covering a large portion of the village.

Conclusion:

The health and hygiene survey at Koraka Puttu conducted by GDC Paderu was a significant step towards improving the well-being of the villagers. The collaboration between NSS, Zoology, and Chemistry departments facilitated a multidisciplinary approach to understanding and addressing the health issues faced by the community. The survey not only identified key areas for intervention but also helped in spreading crucial health awareness among the villagers.

Extension Activities 2018-19

Date: 15-12-2018

Name of the Activity: Free Medical Camp at Koraka Puttu Village

Departments Involved: NSS, RRC (Red Ribbon Club), Zoology, Botany, Chemistry

Number of Students Involved: 100

Activity Overview:

On the 15th of December, 2018, a Free Medical Camp was organized in the village of Koraka Puttu by Government Degree College (GDC) Paderu. This initiative was a collaborative effort involving the National Service Scheme (NSS), Red Ribbon Club (RRC), and the departments of Zoology, Botany, and Chemistry. The primary goal was to provide medical check-ups and distribute necessary medications to the villagers, particularly focusing on elderly residents.

Key Activities:

1. Medical Check-ups:

- A team of doctors conducted comprehensive health check-ups for the villagers.
- The check-ups included general health assessments, blood pressure measurements, blood sugar testing, and examinations for common ailments.

2. Distribution of Medications:

- Based on the diagnoses, essential medications were distributed to the villagers free of cost.
- Prescriptions and medical advice were given for continued care and treatment.

3. Assistance to Elderly Villagers:

- NSS volunteers played a crucial role in assisting elderly villagers.
- Volunteers helped transport elderly residents from their homes to the medical camp and back, ensuring they received necessary medical attention.

Impact:

• Health Benefits:

- The medical camp provided much-needed healthcare services to the villagers, many of whom have limited access to medical facilities.
- Early detection and treatment of health issues were made possible, improving the overall health of the community.

• Community Engagement:

- The involvement of 100 students fostered a strong sense of community service and responsibility.
- The event highlighted the importance of healthcare and encouraged villagers to be more proactive about their health.

Conclusion:

The free medical camp at Koraka Puttu, organized by GDC Paderu, was a highly successful initiative that addressed the immediate healthcare needs of the villagers. The collaborative effort of various departments ensured a well-rounded approach to the camp, providing both medical services and community support. The proactive involvement of students not only made the event effective but also emphasized the importance of health awareness and volunteerism in community service. This initiative significantly contributed to the well-being of the villagers and underscored the college's commitment to social responsibility.

Extension Activities -2018-19

Date: 13-12-2018

Name of the Activity: Awareness on Water Pollution at Koraka Puttu Village

Departments Involved: Chemistry, Zoology, Botany, NSS

Number of Students Involved: 50 and 80 village people

Activity Overview:

On December 13, 2018, Government Degree College (GDC) Paderu organized an awareness program on water pollution in Koraka Puttu village. The initiative was led by the Chemistry, Zoology, and Botany departments in collaboration with NSS (National Service Scheme). The primary goal was to educate both students and villagers about the causes, factors, and consequences of water pollution, with Dr. Raja Gopal, a lecturer in Chemistry at GDC Paderu, serving as the keynote speaker.

Key Activities and Highlights:

1. Keynote Address by Dr. Raja Gopal:

- Dr. Raja Gopal delivered an informative speech explaining the reasons and factors contributing to water pollution.
- He highlighted issues such as industrial effluents, agricultural runoff, improper waste disposal, and urban sewage as major contributors to water pollution.

2. Presentations by Students:

- Students from Chemistry, Zoology, and Botany departments conducted presentations on specific aspects of water pollution.
- They covered topics like the impact of pollutants on aquatic life, ecosystem degradation, and human health effects.

3. Awareness Campaign:

- Posters and pamphlets were distributed to raise awareness about preventive measures and sustainable practices to mitigate water pollution.
- The campaign aimed to empower villagers with knowledge on how to protect local water resources and promote community involvement in conservation efforts.

Impact and Conclusion:

The awareness program on water pollution at Koraka Puttu village was highly effective in raising consciousness about environmental issues among both students and villagers. Through the collaborative efforts of the Chemistry, Zoology, Botany departments, and NSS, participants gained valuable insights into the causes and consequences of water pollution. The involvement of Dr. Raja Gopal as a knowledgeable speaker further enriched the educational experience, ensuring that the information conveyed was both comprehensive and accessible. This initiative not only fostered environmental stewardship but also encouraged community engagement in safeguarding water resources for future generations.

Extension Activities 2018-19

Date: 14-12-2018

Name of the Activity: Importance of Small Scale Savings at Koraka Puttu Village

Department Involved: Economics

Number of Students Involved: 48 students and 85 village peoples

On December 14, 2018, Dr. Murali Dhar, a lecturer in Economics from Government Degree College (GDC) Paderu, conducted an informative session on the importance of small scale savings in Karaka Puttu village. The session aimed to educate villagers about the benefits and significance of saving money, even in modest amounts, for financial security and future planning.

Dr. Murali Dhar emphasized that small scale savings can lead to significant financial stability over time, enabling individuals to meet unforeseen expenses, invest in education, or start small businesses. He highlighted the importance of disciplined saving habits and discussed practical tips on how villagers can manage their finances effectively.

The session concluded with an interactive discussion where villagers shared their experiences and learned strategies for better financial management. Overall, the activity was well-received, empowering the community with knowledge to improve their economic resilience through small scale savings.

Extension Activities 2018-19

Date: 12-07-2018

Name of the Activity: Create Awareness on Sports in Koraka Puttu Village

Department Involved: Physical Education

Number of Participants: 50 Students and Village People

Activity Overview:

On the 12th of July, 2018, the Department of Physical Education from Government Degree College (GDC) Paderu organized an activity to create awareness about the importance of sports in the village of Koraka Puttu. The event aimed to promote physical fitness, the benefits of regular exercise, and the role of sports in leading a healthy lifestyle.

Key Activities:

1. Sports Awareness Session:

- A session was conducted to educate the villagers about the significance of sports and physical activities.
- The benefits of sports, such as improved health, teamwork, and discipline, were discussed.

2. Interactive Demonstrations:

- Students demonstrated various sports and physical exercises.
- The demonstrations included popular sports such as football, volleyball, and athletics.
- Basic skills and rules of the games were explained to the villagers.

3. Engagement Activities:

- Villagers were encouraged to participate in the sports activities.
- Friendly matches were organized between students and villagers to foster engagement and interest in sports.

4. Distribution of Sports Equipment:

- Basic sports equipment such as footballs, volleyballs, and nets were distributed to the village.
- This was aimed at providing resources to sustain sports activities in the village.

Impact:

- The activity successfully raised awareness about the importance of sports and physical activities among the villagers.
- The hands-on demonstrations and engagement activities sparked interest and enthusiasm for sports within the community.
- Providing sports equipment helped to ensure that the villagers could continue to engage in physical activities even after the event.

Conclusion:

The sports awareness activity at Koraka Puttu was a fruitful initiative by the Department of Physical Education at GDC Paderu. It highlighted the importance of sports for physical and mental well-being and encouraged the villagers to adopt a more active lifestyle. The involvement of 50 students along with the village people made the event interactive and impactful, fostering a spirit of community and healthy living.

Extension Activities 2018-19

Date: 24-06-2018

Name of the Activity: Medical Camp at D Gondhuru Village

Departments Involved: Zoology, NSS, Red Ribbon Club (RRC), Botany, Chemistry

Number of Students Involved: 80

Activity Overview:

On June 24, 2018, Government Degree College (GDC) Paderu organized a medical camp in D Gondhuru village. The initiative was a collaborative effort by the departments of Zoology, NSS, RRC, Botany, and Chemistry. The primary objective was to provide medical check-ups, distribute necessary medications, and raise health awareness among the villagers.

Key Activities:

1. Medical Check-ups:

- A team of doctors and medical professionals conducted thorough health examinations for the villagers.
- The check-ups included basic health assessments such as measuring blood pressure, checking blood sugar levels, and general health consultations.

2. Distribution of Medicines:

- Essential medicines were distributed free of cost based on the doctors' prescriptions.

- Medications for common ailments like colds, fevers, infections, and chronic diseases were provided.

3. Health Education:

- Informative sessions on maintaining hygiene, preventing common diseases, and the importance of regular health check-ups were conducted.
- Special focus was given to educating the villagers about waterborne diseases, given the rural setting.

4. NSS Volunteer Assistance:

- NSS volunteers assisted in organizing the camp, managing queues, and helping the elderly and disabled villagers to access medical services.
- They also helped in setting up the medical stations and ensuring a smooth flow of activities.

Impact:

- Improved Health Access:
  - The medical camp provided vital health services to many villagers who otherwise have limited access to healthcare.

- Early detection of potential health issues was made possible, allowing for timely intervention and treatment.
- Enhanced Health Awareness:
  - The educational component of the camp raised awareness about important health practices and preventive measures.
  - Villagers gained valuable knowledge on maintaining personal and community health, which can lead to long-term benefits.

Conclusion:

The medical camp at D Gondhuru village was a successful initiative by GDC Paderu, addressing the healthcare needs of the local community. The involvement of 80 students and collaboration among various departments ensured the camp's effectiveness and efficiency. This event not only provided immediate health benefits but also fostered a sense of community and highlighted the importance of health education and preventive care.
